

LISTENING COMPREHENSION LESSON: Listening at the RestaurantDICTATION TRANSCRIPT

I can't believe the bad service at that restaurant last night. The hostess had a peculiar way of talking. I swear she told us that it would be a 20 minute wait, but it wound up being an hour. I was so upset that I was going to complain to the manager, but then we were finally seated, and I simply wanted to enjoy my meal without getting agitated about the wait. Unfortunately, that proved impossible. Our waiter was incompetent and almost immediately messed up our drink orders. Then, I asked for a steak cooked medium rare, and he brought me one well done. The steak was so horrible that I refused to pay for it and requested a refund. I cannot comprehend why the wait was so long for such a terrible restaurant. Who would stand in line for such bad service? It's beyond me!

VOCABULARY

1. Dictation-n. The act of writing word for word spoken language. The secretary took dictation during the meeting so the directors could reference all their ideas later.
2. Tally-n. & v. to keep account or to keep score usually by making a mark to register a certain number of items. He kept a tally of his golf swings so he can keep track of any improvements.
3. Peculiar-adj. strange. He is a peculiar character who only comes out at night.
4. Agitate-v. to move or shake briskly; to disturb. The woman was agitated because the dry cleaner lost her dress.
5. Incompetent-adj. lacking ability; incapable. I would not trust Sam to complete that project. He proved incompetent while managing the last one.
6. It's beyond me-an expression meaning that I don't understand. It's beyond comprehension.
7. Nuance-n. the small details of something. Every nuance in this report must be perfect when the director reviews it.